I have had a death in my family and am dealing with that right now. I can assure you that the dismissal will be filed. I am not available for a conference with Judge King tomorrow. Derek is out because of personal reasons and has nothing to do with this case.

Subject: Nayyar - Dismissal

Bill,

It has now been over a month since you represented to us and to Magistrate Judge King in a February 9 chambers conference that Dr. Nayyar was going to voluntarily dismiss the case and refile it, and since we conveyed to you the Defendants' approval of the dismissal. On February 17, you stated in an e-mail that you were working on the dismissal and would have it done soon. However, by February 25, we still had not received it. Because you said you were busy on another case, I put together a draft notice of dismissal and sent it to you on February 25. To date, you have not filed it. And, today, Derek Bricker withdrew from the case, despite your representation to us and the Court that the case is about to be dismissed.

4/6/2011

If the dismissal is not filed by the close of business tomorrow (March 17, 2011), we will seek another conference with Magistrate Judge King to resolve this issue and get the dismissal put on the record.

Please call me if you would like to discuss.

Thanks,

Kris
